Scholarship Application
for the
Western Regional Summer Institute for Union Women (SIUW)
July 10-14, 2018 at Sonoma State University, California

The number of scholarships is limited 3 or 4. Scholarship awards will cover travel (appropriate transportation costs, which may include airfare), lodging for the length of the conference, and registration fees (which includes most meals). Time loss is not paid – you will need to arrange time off with your employer, if employed.

Scholarship award decisions will be based on the information provided below. Details about the Summer Institute, including classes and workshop choices are available at <http://laborcenter.berkeley.edu/siuw/>
