

WORKERS' HEARING

for API workers' voices to be heard about the challenges they face in their workplace.

Distinguished Panel includes:

May Che (EEOC), Lynne Dodson (WSLC), Rob Holland (Port of Seattle Commissioner), Patty Rose (Pierce CLC), Jessica Bonebright (MLK CLC), Moon-Ho Jung (University of Washington), Dean Ikeda (OSHA), and other community/labor leaders.

Sat. November 19, 2011

Asian Counseling & Referral Service gym
3639 Martin Luther King, Jr. Way South
9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Since 2009, APALA has held these workers' hearings in Washington, DC, New York, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Detroit and Oakland. Seattle's hearing will help develop a national picture of API workers and the importance of unions and labor organizations like APALA and other workers' groups to fight for workers' rights.

CO-SPONSORS INCLUDE: Asian Pacific Islander Coalition, Washington State Labor Council, Martin Luther King Central Labor Council, SEIU 6, AFT Seattle, Inland Boatmen Union, UFCW 21, SEIU 775, SEIU 1199 NW, AFSCME 843, WEA, NAPA WF, LEL0, IAM 751, WFSE 304, UNITEHERE 8

APALA
Asian Pacific American Labor Alliance, AFL-CIO

*Organizing
Civil Rights
Economic Justice*

* More Info: contact Seattle APALA, Tracy 206-919-1261 or talyce.lai@gmail.com