

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, according to information compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Washington State remains one of the safest states for workers; and

WHEREAS, these statistics indicate that our mission to make workplaces safer and focus on prevention, consultation and safety culture are producing positive results; and

WHEREAS, success depends on all of us: labor, business and public sectors working together to prevent avoidable incidents; and

WHEREAS, The Governor's Industrial Safety & Health Conference is held annually in partnership with the Governor's Industrial Safety & Health Advisory Board and The Department of Labor & Industries to provide workplace safety education and training to help prevent injuries, illnesses, and to eliminate fatalities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the State of Washington, do hereby proclaim September 23-29, 2019, as

Workplace Safety and Health Week

in Washington, and I encourage all employers and workers to make some contribution to the continuing effort to improve workplace safety culture in Washington.

Signed this 8th day of August, 2019

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Jay Inslee".

Governor Jay Inslee

