

Eternos

Indocumentados:

Central & Southeast
Seattle Interfaith
Migrant Rights Network

Central American Refugees in the United States Why are Central Americans fleeing to the United States?

Directed/Produced by Jennifer A. Cárcamo

Based on interviews with recently arrived Central Americans and organizers leading the struggle on the ground in Central America and the U.S., this film captures the stories of refugees and uncovers the root causes of forced migration as well as migrant incarceration. In the words of revolutionary, Salvadoran poet, Roque Dalton, this film captures the lives of los Eternos Indocumentados (the Eternally Undocumented).

Film Screening & Community Discussion

Washington State Labor Council, 321 16th Ave, Seattle WA 98144

Saturday, February 29, 2020 2:00PM to 4:30PM

Join community members and local organizers for an evening of sharing and discussion on the migrant and refugee crisis, the history of forced migration from Central America and other countries and how we can organize together for our collective liberation!

Sponsored by Seattle Interfaith Migrants Rights Network and International Migrants Alliance Pacific Northwest (IMA-PNW)

Co-sponsors: WAISN, Migrante Seattle, WSLC AFL-CIO, Church Council of Greater Seattle, ACLU Washington, Faith Action Network, CISPES, UFCW21, and many more!

For questions or info contact:

International Migrants Alliance: FB: @migrantsunite | IG: @ima.us | wearemigrants.net

Seattle Interfaith Migrants Rights Network | FB: Central & Southeast Seattle Interfaith Migrant Rights Network

<http://eternosindocumentados.com/>