

LABOR OF LOVE: ART AND HEALING GRANT

The purpose of this grant is to identify at least 15 Black, Indigenous, people of color activists or organizations to support locally with a focus on racial equity, enfranchisement and social equity-based movement building within and adjacent to our local labor movement. We believe that compensating movement builders and justice warriors' that have been fighting this fight, and building this movement through their artistic expression is long overdue. We as a society have benefitted from the work and sacrifice movement activists have already contributed to the betterment of our society.

APPLICATION PERIOD IS NOV 19 – DEC 4, 2020 5:00PM PST

HOW TO APPLY

Online form, mail in completed form or photo/video submission.

Application is available in Spanish and can be translated into multiple languages upon request. Support for completing the application will be available by contacting kperreira@wslc.org

AWARD

This grant is an award of up to $1000, to individuals or organizations that are selected through a panel review process (amount will also be determined by the panel). The award will come in the form of a check from Foundation for Working Families, made possible by Fight Back Collaborative Fund, a fund of Tides Foundation

Evaluation period will be Dec 7-9, 2020
Awardees will be notified on Dec 11, 2020

FOUNDATION
For WORKING FAMILIES

Washington State Labor Council, AFL-CIO