and its affiliated unions

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN WORKING FOR SOCIAL CHANGE?

Union Summer is a paid summer internship for folks interested in the labor movement. Participants spend seven weeks working full time & getting hands-on experience building power for working people.

The program is broken into three main sections: education, actions, and on the job training.

Weekly schedules can include: attending rallies and staffing strike lines, registering voters, job site visits with union members, political field work and more.
