

“SAY IT LOUDER;
WE’RE EMANCIPATED AND PROUD”

JOIN OUR ANNUAL JUNETEENTH CELEBRATION 2022

Friday, June 17, 2022 | 6:30pm

Sponsored by the Puget Sound Advocates for Retirement Action (PSARA)

Where: Via Zoom.

Contact organizer@psara.org for the link or contact Mike Andrew at 206/261-8110.

An evening of spoken word, song, poetry and historical accounts centered on Juneteenth. Hosted by Jaye Ware, and featuring Christine Robinson, Rodney Moseley, and Sam Collins.

Jacqueline (Jaye) Ware

Jacqueline (Jaye) Ware, Playwright, is an outstanding spoken word artist and Poet

Rodney Moseley

Rodney Moseley, is a Microsoft Lead cyber Security Manager and community activist who works for the empowerment of communities and the advancement of youth in technology.

Christine Robinson

Christine Robinson, is a Superior Court system employee who is known for her outstanding vocal artistry.

Sam Collins

Sam Collins is a Galveston native deeply dedicated to the preservation of the rich African American cultural heritage and is on a mission to not let it be forgotten.

PSARA (Puget Sound Advocates for Retirement Action) is one of the leading senior advocacy organizations in Washington state. For almost 40 years they have been forceful advocates for older Americans, their children, and their families.