

HARRY BRIDGES CENTER FOR LABOR STUDIES

SO YOU WANT TO WORK IN LABOR?

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 13TH
3:30-5:30PM

ONLINE (VIA) ZOOM: REGISTER AT:
TINYURL.COM/LABORCAREERPANEL

What does it mean to work in the labor movement? Are you interested in learning more about working for a union, labor center, or an organization supporting workers?

Please join the Bridges Center to hear from labor leaders about their work, how they found their way to the labor movement, and what influences them. There are many ways to work in and be involved in the labor movement. Panelists represent a variety of organizations, positions, and experiences and will answer guided questions and questions from attendees.

For more information about the Bridges Center or the Labor Studies Social, visit labor.uw.edu, call (206) 543-7946, or email hbcls@uw.edu

To request disability accommodation, contact the UW Disability Services Office, (206) 543-6450 or (206) 543-6452 (TTY), dso@uw.edu

EUNICE HOW

Lead Community & Political Organizer, Unite Here 8

KASI PERREIRA

Director of Racial and Gender Justice, WSLC

GUILLERMO MOGOLLAN

Political & Legislative Organizer, Teamsters 117

JAMES OLIVEROS

Labor Educator, WA LERC

AMY LEONG

Lead Organizer, APALA

ADA LIN

Researcher, SEIU 1199 NW

PATRICE TISDALE

Staff Attorney, Driver's Union

MORGAN CURRIER

Lead Contract Organizer, SEIU CIR